SOUTH ON TOP, JUVE FIGHTS ON

● Eddie Krncevic ...

THOSE wiseacres who were writing off Juventus two weeks ago might yet have to eat their words.

Manfred Schaefer has breathed such fire into the Black and Whites that anything is possible.

Who could have imagined that a team on the bottom of the ladder would have the audacity to win three games in six days, against top opposition?

As team manager Joe Caruso says proudly: "We knocked off Marconi when they were on top, then we beat Sydney Croatia when they were there and this week we'll account for south Melbourne."

Brave words, but then, who would dare to say he couldn't be right after Juve's effort of last week?

South Melbourne powered its way to the top with a convincing win over doomed Brisbane Lions, whose new coach, club stalwart Frank Liddell, looks like having as lean a time as his sacked predecessor, Juan Cutillas.

Lions meet APIA Leichhardt in a postponed game tomorrow night (Friday) that could be of crucial importance to Juventus.

If Lions succeed in knocking off APIA, last year's champions will be only two points in front of Juventus and with an almost identical goal difference.

It could be just the spur to send the Black and Whites into Middle Park with their sleeves rolled up.

Preston Makedonia plunged back into the mire with its loss to Olympic and on Sunday, in another game crucial to Juve's chances of survival, it meets George Cross.

Georgie has lost three games in eight days, and Preston could cop the backlash. It all adds up to an engrossing round on Sunday.

Eddie's back — but not for long

EDDIE Krncevic, Australia's best striker is back home, but unfortunately, not for long.

Krncevic, who guested for his old club Marconi in its win over Adelaide City said that regretfully he would not be available for the forthcoming Gold Cup, despite having made his peace with Socceroo coach Frank Arok.

His Belgian club,

Anderlecht, wants him back as soon as possible for pre-season training.

SPORT 88 — MAKING THE BICENTENARY GREAT

THERE are strong rumors circulating among the Heidelberg United faithful that the club will not be going into the National League next season even if it gets the chance, and there are those who support such a backward step.

Well, the rumors are wrong and there could be no better proof of this than the current moves being made to make Olympic Village the best club ground in Melbourne.

Last Sunday, Heidelberg opened its new social facilities amidst much pomp and circumstance. It was a big day for the club but only the forerunner of more to come.

The new building is worth about $200,000, yet it didn't put the club in debt.

President Lou Youanidis said: "Every brick, every light fitting, the carpet and partitions were all donated free to the club. And so was the labor."

"No club could have been given better proof of the dedication of its support. Everyone has been magnificent. We couldn't have done it without the ordinary fans and the local council."

"But that's only the first step. We intend to build dressingrooms under the social rooms with tunnels leading out to the pitch. It really will be a top stadium when we are finished."

Last year's president Peter Tsaklis is also deeply involved and he has a few plans he wants to push through for the good of the club.

"I believe we should have floodlights and I intend to seek the support of the council in getting them. But we would also want an assurance from the Victorian Soccer Federation that the stadium would be used for other than league games."

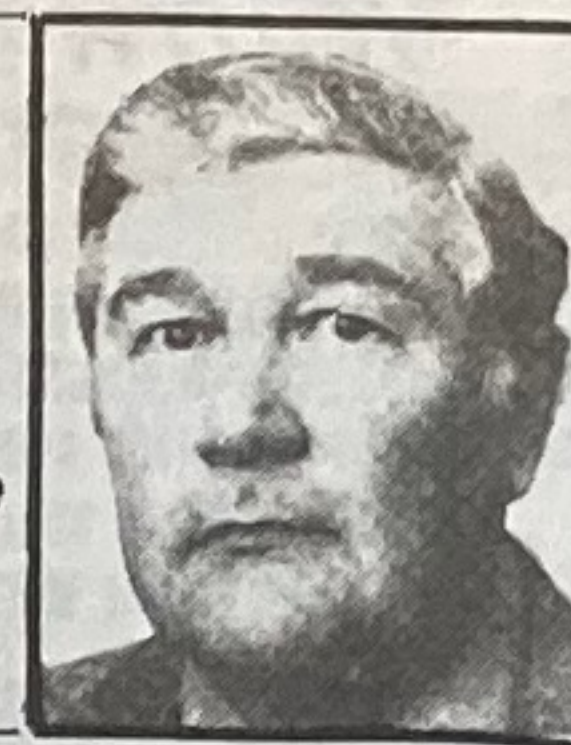

"I feel we would be in a position to stage big cup games and perhaps the odd international. There would be no point in going to all the necessary expense if the facilities were not going to be used regularly."

Heidelberg also hopes to have a new pitch laid for next season and there is every chance that a new running track will also be installed.

The idea, apparently, is that the new ground will be useful as training quarters if Melbourne wins the right to host the Olympic Games in 1992.

There is no doubt the club has set its sight high and among the very important items on the agenda is a build-up of support.

Tsaklis is working on moves to attract the youngsters by giving tickets away at schools.

"If we can attract kids there is a good chance we can also attract the rest of their families," Tsaklis said.

"We could let a whole family in for the price of an adult admission. The schoolboy gets a free ticket and hopefully he brings along his father and maybe even his mother and sister."

"A whole family in for $6 is not bad value. But we are thinking of the future, getting back into the National League and building up our support."

"If we can provide the right facilities and the right incentive I believe we can bring back the good old days.

"That at least is our aim and we are working very hard to achieve it."

Youanidis is in complete agreement and it is obvious that Heidelberg is now a club with the right men in charge and a determination to do the right thing.

Those who feel a return to the NSL would be financial suicide are obviously a touch faint hearted or have not witnessed the enthusiasm taking over the committee.

Heidelberg has already achieved a great deal by paying off huge debts, rebuilding a team which has the look of State League champions and carrying out an extensive building programme.

It was and is a brave move, but it is the right attitude and deserves success.

● Lou Youanidis... "we couldn't have done it without the ordinary fans and the local council."

VICTORIA'S soccer fans have a unique opportunity next Thursday to see and hear the man described by Time Magazine as the greatest athlete of the Twentieth Century.

The incomparable Edson Arantes do Nascimento, Pele to everyone in world soccer will be the guest speaker at the Offside Club's next function, which is to be a lunch at the Sheraton Hotel on July 7, commencing at 12.15.

Tickets are $35.00 and tables of ten can still be booked at $350.00. For bookings or further details ring Anna on 429 6288.

He also seems quite unaware of the benefits of that wonderful invention, the facsimile machine, because he continues to put his faith in our not always reliable Australia Post.

Yes, he has sent in seven match reports and, yes, five of them have missed out, simply because they arrived in our mail box just after the newspaper was being printed.

We've said it before and we'll say it again, we are only too happy to print any club's match report, but we must receive it on Monday.

DESPITE the ban on his "World Cup" venture, Tony Kennedy is still hopeful that the VSF will relent and allow him to stage another.

TALKING to Eddie Thomson this week, I congratulated him on winning again after a run of outs.

"Oh, it's great to win again," said Eddie, but the problem is, the lads had forgotten the team song, it's been so long."

When I suggested having the song sheets printed Eddie said "what's the use, the buggers would lose them too".

Saints' semi hopes

ST GEORGE 1
APIA 0

ST GEORGE'S 1-0 win over Apia Leichhardt at Lambert Park, Sydney, on Sunday carried it into semi-final calculations but Apia is now in deep trouble.

With only six games remaining, Apia, last year's champion, seems destined to fight with Brisbane Lions, Brunswick and Preston to avoid ending up with one of the two relegation spots.

St. George's winner came in the 43rd minute when striker Kevin Hagan gratefully accepted a cross from Scott Ollerenshaw on the right at the far post. He had the entire width of the goal at his mercy as he cleverly volleyed home from 12m. Although Apia coach Rale Rasic was unhappy with some decisions made by referee Gary Power, almost every clear scoring chance was fashioned by the St. George players.

No one did more to assist St. George's victory than their clever mid-fielder, Allan Pottier, but his partners Craig Moffitt and Pedro Ricoy were also well to the fore.

As early as the ninth minute, Ollerenshaw had the ball in the net for St. George after following up a rebound only to be ruled offside. Both Ollerenshaw and Pottier went close right at the end but Apia goalkeeper and best player Tony Pezzano foiled the attempts.

BACK ON TRACK

MARCONI 2 (Farina 12th, De Jong 86th)
ADELAIDE CITY 1 (Mullen 90th)

THE influence of Eddie Krncevic and the goal-scoring talent of Socceroo striker Frank Farina helped to put Marconi back on track on Sunday. Marconi outplayed a disappointing Adelaide City to win 2-1 at Marconi Oval, Sydney.

The victory lifts the Fairfield-based team to just one point behind co-competition leaders South Melbourne and Sydney Croatia.

Although he did not score a goal, Krncevic's class was undoubted.

He showed many fine touches, including superb aerial skills, before he had to be replaced in the 75th minute after jetlag eventually caught up with him.

Krncevic, who is on holidays in Australia after a successful season with Anderlecht in the Belgium First Division, was playing his only guest match in Australia before returning to Europe. Marconi coach Berti Mariani was happy with the bi striker's contribution.

"Considering he has been here only three days and trained with the team for only 45 minutes on Friday I thought he did well enough," Mariani said.

"I could not have asked him for more."

Marconi took the lead after 12 minutes when a Paul Carter cross was deflected and Farina poked home the rebound.

Marconi wrapped up the match in the 86th minute when replacement Fred De Jong scored after a cross from the right wing.

Striker Joe Mullen saved some honor for Adelaide with a goal in the last minute.

WOLLONGONG 3 (Easthorpe 21st, Cokely 67th, Crainie 80th)
GEORGE CROSS 1 (Markovac 40th)

SUNSHINE George Cross coach John Gardiner was not impressed after watching his team lose 3-1 to Wollongong City in their match at Brandon Park

game on Wednesday. Wollongong started at a frantic pace and should have punished a shaky Sunshine defence.

It was not until the 21st minute that it managed to break through with striker Randell Easthorpe doing the damage.

Although on the defensive for most of the first half, Sunshine hit back in the 40th minute through

JUVE'S HAT-TRICK

JUVENTUS 2 (Egan 7th, Palatsides 12th) SYD. CROATIA 0

BRUNSWICK Juventus threw the relegation battle wide open by defeating League Leader Sydney Croatia 2-0 in a shock result at Olympic Village on Saturday.

It was the third successive victory by Juve and the points lifted them to within two of Apia and Preston, jointly in third-last spot on 16 points.

Brunswick played with a strong wind at its back in the first half and scored 60th goals early in the game from two successive corner kicks by Scott Patterson.

From the first, in the seventh minute, a Sydney Croatia defender should have cleared in a crowded goalmouth but Charlie Egan grasped the chance to shoot past keeper Anthony Franken.

Five minutes later, Joe Palatsides was left unmarked to head home at the far post from another in-swinging Patterson corner.

The goal was Palatsides' 10th of the season.

Juventus could have added to the score right on half-time, but Sydney Croatia defender Mark Jones cleared off the line from an Egan shot which had already beaten the keeper.

Sydney Croatia did most of the pressing in the second half but it was Juventus which continued to create the clear-cut chances from breakaway runs.

Franken made good saves from efforts by Palatsides in the 50th minute and Egan in the 56th, then got down at the coaching reins when the club sacked Juan Cutillas.

The defeat left the Lions anchored at the bottom of the table, with very little hope of escaping the drop.

Two goals in 36 seconds by Australian Youth international Paul Trimboli set up the win for South Melbourne.

Trimboli capitalised on hesitation in the Lions' defence in the 10th minute to poke an angled shot into the goal.

SYD. OLYMPIC 1 (Lee 40th) PRESTON 0

SYDNEY Olympic beat Preston 1-0 in a drab match at Sydney Football Stadium on Sunday.

The disappointed spectators were filing out of the ground before full-time after a lacklustre and goal-shy performance from both teams.

Even the one goal of the match came from poor play when Preston defender Zoran Tasevski attempted a back pass which ran wide of his

The 40th minute goal has enough to keep alive Olympic's slim hopes of making the semi-final playoffs.

"It was a scrappy game and a lucky goal but we've been missing sitters and had to get a break striker Robert Markovac, who slotted home a 15m. shot after a John Markovski cross from the left.

For Sunshine, the real turning point came when defender Andy Marth made an awful blunder to allow Wollongong to score its second goal.

MAN OF THE MATCH: ● ● ● PAUL TRIMBOLI

From the Brisbane kick-off, Trimboli pressured Lions mid-fielder Russell Stewart then chased the ball as the Lions defence desperately attempted to shuffle it back to keeper Jason Kearton.

Trimboli used his speed to dart between last defender John Lowey and Kearton to push the ball into the net.

South Melbourne sealed the match when Danny Wright, a former Brisbane player, was given a gift opportunity when Kearton palmed a cross to the striker's feet.

Lions pulled one back through Dave Wheeler seconds before half-time and applied pressure early in the second half but South Melbourne were far too strong and never in danger of losing.

sometime," Olympic coach Eddie Thomson said. "We needed the win and only some great saves by keeper Clint Gosling kept us in the game."

Gosling and former youth midfielder Jason Polak were the only two bright points in the game.

Forwards fire for Brunswick

JUVENTUS 4 (Egan 25th, Palatsides 48th pen, Zinni 52nd, 85th)
GEORGE CROSS 2 (Markovac 74th, Parton 81st)

BRUNSWICK Juventus maintained its dramatic improvement under new coach Manfred Schaefer to beat Sunshine George Cross 4-2 in their twice-postponed round 18 match at Olympic Park last Wednesday night.

It was Juventus' second successive victory, having beaten Lions 3-0 the previous weekend while it was the second successive loss for George Cross.

feet of Mike Petersen to courageously block another shot in the 58th minute.

Croatia made two substitutions, bringing on Tony Krslovic for Manis Lamond and David Rezo for Craig Foster, and created its best chance in the 74th minute.

Former Socceroo John Yzendoorn was forced into making a goal-line clearance following a Robbie Slater corner.

But it was Juventus which finished on the attack and Egan was narrowly wide with his final shot after running onto a through pass from Andrew Zinni in the 86th minute.

Davidson fell on his arm in a tackle by Footscray's Oscar Crino.

Footscray had the ball for 90 per cent of the game but the Croatia defenders, particularly Robbie Dunn and Graham Heys, hung on grimly.

Footscray had plenty of scoring chances, many of them created by Crino's fine midfield play.

MAN OF THE MATCH: ● ● ● WARREN SPINK

Milan Dimoski hit the post in the 21st minute, the ball bounced out to Crino and his shot was cleared off the goal line by Heys.

By half-time, Footscray goalkeeper Zoran Nikitovic had not been forced to make a single save.

The second half started with Footscray mid-fielder Ernie Tapai riding a tackle in side the penalty area and cutting the ball back to Warren Spink, who volleyed into the side netting.

Shortly afterwards, Ken Murphy belted a shot over the bar and then Spink put the ball into the net, but referee Richard Lorenc had spotted a hand ball by Spink and disallowed the goal.

In the 67th minute Spink, dribbling inside the penalty area, was brought down by Dunn but, despite Footscray protests, Lorenc did not award a penalty.

Shortly before full-time, Heys and Tapai came to blows following a tackle by Heys, and both players were shown the yellow card.

MICEVSKI WANTS THE NATIONAL JOB

● Zoran Ilioski in his Preston Makedonia days.

ZORAN Ilioski, who reigned as the longest-serving National League player before he left Preston Makdeonia, has added the finishing touch to the Altona Gate Vardar team which is still unbeaten at the top of the First Division ladder and is almost certain to be promoted to the State League.

Ilioski, although playing sweeper, scored the deciding goal in a 2-1 victory over Werribee last weekend, picking up a rebound, dummyming an opponent and beating the goalkeeper, when the score was 1-1.

"I bought Ilioski to play as last man and he is doing a great job now, settling the team down from defence.

Everyone has a lot of confidence in him," says Mike Micevski, Altona Gate coach.

At Altona Gate Vardar, Ilioski has joined his friend and former Footscray JUST teammate Mendo Ristovski, who has been scoring practically every week. Ristovski, a former Socceroo, like Micevski, has a new lease of life.

"Mendo is training harder than anyone, he's first one there and the last to leave on training nights. He's faster than ever and he's realised that we are relying on him to do a bit more work, because of his experience.

Ritovski and Ilija Tasevski, who joined him from Footscray JUST earlier this year, have been running neck and neck as joint top goal-scorers.

A third forward is expected to join soon.

He is Peter Necevski who will be the second former Ohrid player at Altona Gate, the other being Klime Aslimovski, a talented midfielder.

Another former Footscray JUST player at Vardar is Ljube Talevski who transferred to Altona Gate at about the age of 19.

One of the most exciting players at the club is 17 year old Arthur Davis whom Micevski describes thus. "He's extremely skilful, he reads the game well, is very fast and strongly built and does a great amount of tackling and ball-winning, what more can you ask of a midfielder?"

From Preston Makedonia, Altona Gate has gained left-back Borce Momirovski, goalkeeper Stuart Lee and George Gagic.

Gagic previously had experience with Box Hill.

But the club also has a lot of home-grown talent including the coach's cousin, Simon Micevski, Jim Kebakovski, and Goran Georgievski.

Mike Micevski has so much talent at Altona Gate Vardar that he worries in conversation about overlooking anyone.

"At the start of the year, I aimed for a squad of twenty players," he says. "I want to get the club into the State League and even now we have got a team that could beat most of the State League clubs."

It is Micevski's second stint as coach of Altona Gate Vardar, he having taken the club to fifth position in 1985, despite losing seven players through injury that year.

Injuries also cut short his own career.

Only 34, he should still be playing, but he gave it away after a season with Sunbury United in 1986.

Before that he played for Altona Gate Vardar, Heidelberg, Marconi Hakoah Victoria and Altona City as well as having a stint with Arminia Bielefeld in West Germany in 1978.

He represented Australia six times and Victoria five times.

His biggest disappointments in soccer were being omitted, along with Billy Vojtek from the Australian team that went to West Germany for the '74 World Cup Finals, and missing out on a lucrative contract with Bielefeld, because Marconi coach Rale Rasic stalled too long for a higher transfer fee even after Bielefeld had sent over $18,000.

While on a training camp in Perth in 1975 with the Socceroos, then coached by Brian Green, he was appalled by the way some of the senior players behaved.

"There was no discipline in the team, some players acted like pigs when they went out to a restaurant.

"Their manners were garbage and girls were going in and out of their rooms.

"A few years later, Rudi Gutendorf was toppled by the attitude of some of the players."

It was so different in West Germany where nothing but sheer professionalism was tolerated.

At Bielefeld, Micevski felt he was on the verge of making a serious career out of soccer.

Ten years later, he is well on the way to picking up where he left off in West Germany.

"I am deadly serious. This is the career for me," he says.

"My mind is set on a big job — the national team —

Melbourne's Japanese "twin" city is Osaka and the boys will travel to that city for a Mayoral reception and to play in a friendly match before returning to Tokyo to play against teams from Brazil, Belgium, Italy, The Republic of Korea, The peoples Republic of China and the USA.

Melbourne's boys were chosen from the "development squad" of more than forty, selected after the Under 12 Regional championships.

ROY McLAREN'S ULTIMATIUM
Northcote coach Roy McLaren, departing this week for a five-week holiday in England, left the club with a clear ultimatum after the sensational happenings at Box Hill.

"If the clowns who are running... or should that be ruining... the club at present are still in charge when I get back, they can forget about me."

"This season we have had three committees at Northcote."

"I went there with the clear understanding that I was to be completely in charge of the playing side, and I didn't want anything to do with the politics."

"The committee that appointed me knew I would be going away at this time on holiday and we were in complete agreement about it."

"But this present committee, headed by Con Argropoulos and with Steve Mefus as treasurer and team manager has much different ideas, and doesn't seem inclined to honour the first committee's promises."

"It all came to a head at Box Hill on Sunday."

"Sunday's referee was also in charge of our game at St Albans, on April 9, when he sent off our mid-fielder, Stan Thodis."

"The committee seems to look on this referee with some resentment and on Sunday, after he had awarded the second of two penalties against us, our team manager rushed on to the field, picked up the ball and said we are going home."

"I couldn't believe my eyes, but I managed to get him to leave the field and the game re-started."

"But when we reached the dressing room for half-time, both the President and the team manager were standing there and they ordered us not to take the field for the second half."

"I wasn't going to put up with that nonsense and I told them so, in unmistakable terms."

"Then I said to the players 'we came here to do a job, that is to play soccer, and that's what we are going to do, for the good name of the club. We aren't going to be involved in the politics of the matter'."

"Then we went out and played the second half."

Pale blues maybe, dark blues after the Thomas-town game certainly, but never, never mighty."

Caulfield was completely humiliated by Thomastown on Saturday, contemptuously swept aside by a team that was vastly superior on the day."

The home side had the use of a strong breeze in the first half, failed to take any advantage and then stood by helplessly as Thomastown piled on the pressure in the second half and scored four goals."

The score, by the way, did not flatter Thomas-impressive against Caulfield, especially as his opponent allowed him the freedom of the park. Spectators were still talking with bated breath after the game about the pile-driver he unleashed that Caulfield goalkeeper Robert Madjer did well to tip over the bar."

Thomastown takes on Fawkner this Sunday, and if it plays in the same vein, Fawkner will be hard-pressed to keep the score within reasonable proportions."

HEIDELBERG ANSWERS BACK

In last week's column I was incautious enough to pose the rhetorical question, has Heidelberg shot its bolt? A reasonable speculation in view of its two successive defeats, and of course I was answered in the most emphatic way by the big win over Oakleigh.

It was good to see Terry Hennessy back in charge again, and I sincerely hope that his return will silence the back-stabbers who were so ready to write him off.

A little bird has whispered to me that all is not well at Heidelberg, if there is going to be a power struggle, I hope it comes out the right way.

To be fair, Caulfield was without John Bitsonis, Angie Filippou and Phil Griffin, but it couldn't proffer that as an excuse, on the day it was vastly inferior to Thomastown and it will now be Conditis' unenviable task to put some fire back in Caulfield's belly and get it back into the top four.

Thomastown coach Billy Murry naturally was ecstatic after the game... when I spoke to him he had a can in each hand and a grin from ear to ear.

I'll bet Billy wishes he had Kevin Rogers for the rest of the season and not just until August.

Rogers, who will be going back to Welsh club Merthyr-Tydfil, was very-overseas. *****

Vrzina says he is grateful for the big effort both players have made, and of course St Albans has had a very successful season, whether it makes the top four or not, considering that it lost five of its best players before the season started.

In fact, as Vrzina pointed out to me, no fewer than five clubs, Bulleen, Croydon, Heidelberg, Green Gully and Springvale had goals scored for them last weekend by ex-st Albans players.

Culina and Kuzman couldn't have picked a worse time to leave, as the Saints face a very tough opponent this Saturday in Heidelberg.

MARIBYRNONG ENDS RINGWOOD'S GALLOP

I certainly put the kiss of death on the Ringwood boys.

Just as they were starting to look good, they crashed at Maribyrnong. And their opponents this week, Box Hill will certainly test Ringwood's ability to bounce back.

This should be a very even contest, with home advantage probably proving decisive.

This weekend's games with probable winners in capitals.

SATURDAY: MORWELL FALCONS v Bulleen at North Crinigan Reserve, St Albans v HEIDELBERG at Churchill Reserve.

SUNDAY: MARIBYRNONG v Oakleigh at Raleigh Reserve, Croydon City v Caulfield City (draw) at Town Park, RINGWOOD CITY v Box Hill at Jubilee Park, THOMASTOWN v Fawkner at Partridge Reserve, Western Suburbs v Northcote City (draw) at Ralph Reserve, Springvale City v GREEN GULLY at Ross Reserve.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE ROUND-UP

IT took Dallas United 82 minutes of strenuous effort before it made sure of maintaining its unbeaten record at the top of Division 3 East.

Apart from the odd breakaway by Keeley Kings, Dallas had dominated this game from the kick-off, having almost total superiority in mid-field, and a much more disciplined and dangerous attacking formation. Only the stubborn defensive efforts of the Keeley backline prevented a debacle.

From about the 75th minute, Dallas forced corner after corner, and was continually in attack with at least eight shots going wide in this period. At the 82nd minute a half-cleared corner fell to Frank Juto on the edge of the area. His low drive, clearing a forest of legs, seemed to be heading safely into the arms of the Keeley keeper, until a last-second deflection pushed it cruelly out of his reach for the only goal of the match.

With this win, Dallas completed the first round six points clear of its nearest rival, Garden City, which did its cause no good at all by going down 1-0 to Taxation United.

Essendon Tramway moved into third spot seven points off the pace, but only one point behind Garden City when it notched up its third monstrous win in as many weeks. Today's victim was Ferris United, which did well to score twice, but saw nine Tramways bombs bulge the back of the net. If the Trammies were race horses, the stewards would be ordering that they be swabbed. At the end of round six they were languishing in sixth place, having conceded 25 goals whilst scoring 16 of their own.

In the last three rounds, however, they have knocked in 24 goals to the opposition's five. While it is inconceivable that they will catch Dallas by the end of round 18, the runners-up guernsey is certainly theirs for the taking.

Bowater also moved back into some sort of contention in accounting for Oakleigh City 23-1.

In Division 3 West, meanwhile, Tottenham has begun to totter, being held to its second draw in as many weeks. In this round, St Albans Wanderers was defending its share of the leadership, and did so with a great deal of determination under very trying conditions. Altona Heights moved up to within two points of the leaders with a tidy, but not entirely convincing 2-1 win over a much-improved Sunbury. Keilor Old Boys dropped back a further point when it was held to a surprising 1-1 scoreline away to Whittlesea.

In Division 1, Middle Park stretched its lead to four points in shuffling off Apollo United's challenge 2-0, while its nearest rival Altona Ilinden, was surprisingly downed 2-1 by seventh-placed Footscray United.

A scrambled goal at the 65th minute gave the Bankers some hope. Their new-found enthusiasm was soon dampened, however, as Tony Vidovic weaved through their defence at the 70th minute, to restore the two goal margin.

Have you ever been pecked to death by a flamingo? It is not a pleasant experience, as the ex-dynamic Dandies found to their cost in this crucial encounter. A win for Dandy Dynamo would have kept it at the head of Division 2A; a loss to Flamingo would have meant the end of its championship dreams. Despite a heavy pitch, this match opened full of running. The first half was completely dominated by Dandy Dynamo, which had several good opportunities to score, but saw each chance go begging. Flamingo, on the other hand, was so consistently forced back into defence that it created no chances at all in this term.

After the break, there was a gradual change to the pattern of the game, with Flamingo now beginning to make a number of forward moves. An indiscreet tackle at the 60th minute gave Flamingo a free kick from the left corner of the Area.

Ermias Wondimu stepped up to take the free and, as he has done on two or three other occasions, this season bent a precise and powerful shot around the wall and into the top corner of the net. Nine minutes later, Malcolm Bresick had the better of a 50-50 challenge in the centre circle and laid a precise pass to the feet of Wondimu, who evaded two defenders to ram home his second goal.

As in the first half, the last 20 minutes were dominated by Dandy Dynamo. The Dandies again had several good chances, but were unable to convert. Even an 80th minute penalty was wasted.

The loss was expensive for Dandy Dynamo, dropping it from first to fourth. Flamingo moved into third position which, assuming it can win the game it has in hand, would be converted into Division 2A leadership. This is the yoyo division. Windsor has bounced back to top spot, following a convincing 6-1 annihilation of Dandenong United, while Rowville, having been dumped to third in the last round has moved back to second, after de-chirping the Sparrows 4-2.

Meanwhile, Thomastown United — 4 points off the leadership — and Preston Pythons (5) both bounced back into contention with good wins.

League squad member Vergilio Melo (scorer of perhaps the goal of the Country Championship series), had his shooting boots on again, netting two of the Pythons' six goals, with another two coming from fellow squad member Fortunato Carvalho and one each from Vergilio Carvalho and a rattled Berwick defence.

After a break for the Cup round next week, the continuing adventures of Division 2A will resume on July 10th. Can the Pythons crush the Flamingos? Can Windsor whomp Thomastown? Can Dandenong United send the Dandies home in rags? Stay tuned.

Division 2 Morning is a far less exciting scene, still dominated by Fibremakers United, which showed absolutely no mercy on West Footscray Larian in chalking up a 7-0 win. Youth United still clings tenaciously to second spot, only two points from the leader. On Sunday, the youngsters took on Kings Park Heights and quietly and methodically, as usual, knocked in four goals without reply.

Other clubs in contention, although the gap is now assuming nightmare proportions, are Coomoora Spiders and Northcote United. The latter returned to form this round at the expense of the Spiders. The two are now locked together on 10 points, 5 points off the pace.

We should also like to remark that the League's culinary standards remain high. The CSUV tamales and fufufos (served at their Saturday disco) and the Dallas cevapciki were quite excellent. Next week, we sample the Lerosian souvlaki.

VICTORIAN LEAGUE
Division Four
East Brunswick/Hamhoe City 4
Boronia 2

EAST BRUNSWICK/IVAN. C.
A. Peruffo, A. Muccio, S. Manini, J. Montemurro, R. Colla, D. Aceski, N. Soccio, S. Ciccone, P. Lepore, R. Santangelo, J. Lucchesi (S. Valento 68), P. Caprioli, I. Curcio.

BORONIA: K. Marsh, I. Williamson (caution), G. Hobson, G. Groenewald, K. White 35), D. Milosevic, C. Pavey, D. Tattersall, C. Langdon, P. Strahan, G. Radcliffe, D. Morgan, C. Whyte (on 80), C. Bravo.

WHETHER planned or not, East Brunswick's play of long-range shots paid off in the windy but fine, sunny conditions at James Reserve, Heidelberg last Saturday.

Without 31 years old R. Santangelo though where would the home side have been?

He had a part in all his team's four goals, the first at eight minutes when a 30m angled shot by him was dropped by Boronia's keeper Ken Marsh and Muccio was near by to tap the ball home.

At 25 minutes Santangelo volleyed a clearance from 30m back into the goal with Marsh well off his goal line.

Three minutes after that, Boronia's Gary Radcliffe tried the same ploy from 35m only to see his drive into the top left hand corner of the goal-mouth, finger-tipped for a corner kick by A. Peruffo.

East Brunswick's third goal came in the fourth minute of the second half by the boot of J. Lucchesi from a long cross from the touchline by Santangelo.

Signs of a Boronia revival came when, eight minutes later, Dino Milosevic tapped home the ball which keeper Peruffo dropped from a header.

Dismay spread further in Boronia's ranks when Santangelo once again blasted a speculative 40m ground shot to see it deflected by Kevin White (Boronia) past the hapless Marsh who had had the ball covered.

Six minutes from time a Chris Pavey cross was headed down by Radcliffe into the path of Milosevic who netted his second goal and earned him Boronia's Man of the Match award.

PROVISIONAL LEAGUE
Division One
Diamond Valley United 2
Brunswick City 2

BRUNSWICK CITY: Koutoulis, Lekakis, Sovolos, S. Diakoumakos, Karahalos, Kostoulou, Antonakis, Vithoulfas, Apostolatos, Liakoumakos, Kouglas, L., Petropoulos.

DIAMOND VALLEY: Hamilton, Drapper, Love, Dodd, Litchfield, Tucker, Flaherty, Coyle, Crompton, Dallas, Kelly, Foster, Chadwick.

WITH a strong wind making it difficult to judge the flight of the ball and a pitch which had more sand than Brighton Beach, Diamond Valley United and Brunswick City fought out a 2-2 draw.

United, using four men up front, took the game to the home side despite playing into the wind and were unlucky on several occasions.

United finally took the lead after 20 minutes when Crompton flicked the ball over the home defence for Kelly to run onto and beat the keeper.

PROVISIONAL LEAGUE
Division Three
Keysborough
Parkmore 3

PARKMORE: M. Acs, A. Szabo, S. Gaszmann, L. Makai, J. Dani, F. Varga, E. Simsek, R. Radoc, J. Collins (V. Horgos-16 min.), M. Hyarmati, R. Henkul. (Gyarmati-1 min. - & 42. Radoc-59 min.).

SOUTH DANDENONG: V. Ajrovski, R. Lumani, H. Fasal, H. Schaefer, M. Jusic, J. Elmazovski, K.

Craven, Y. Gonullu, S. Elmazovski, S. Yildirim, H. Sepetci. (Sepetci-80min.).

GYARAMATTI'S goal in the 1st minute and his second 3 minutes from the break had 'South' reeling.

There were misses at each end but the usual high scoring and confident Dandenong front line were completely out of touch; made to look very ordinary by the nonsense approach adopted by the Parkmore defence. 'South' always looked ill at ease on the difficult playing surface with the result that most of the team played well below their normal standard.

Parkmore, with only the occasional 'hiccup', had their game flowing throughout. Radoc's 59th minute goal virtually sealed the visitor's fate. Try as they might, the goals simply wouldn't come 'South's' way. Sepetci's 80th minute goal was something of a consolation for the visitors' efforts but the day belonged to Parkmore.

However, five minutes later City levelled the score when Antonakis left all on his own beat Hamilton.

This really stung United into action and they set siege to the City goal and Crompton sent Coyle clear and he put United 2-1 up.

United continued to dominate the play and only some bad luck and good defending kept them out. But it was the home team which scored from a corner kick when Apostolatos was allowed to head home, again, no one had picked him up. Playing against a two-goal wind and being 2-2 at half time, the United team were reasonably happy with their effort and looking forward to playing with the wind.

Brunswick City had other ideas and obviously happy with a point, packed its defence and relied on breakaways and the game dragged out to a draw. A disappointing result for United as they should have won this game but the ground conditions certainly didn't help.

Best for United were Flaherty, Crompton and Hamilton.

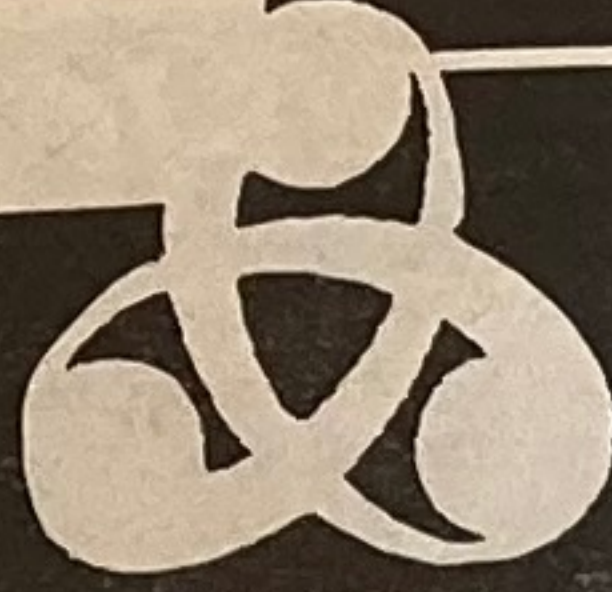

United Reserves won 7-2 to bring their seasons tally to over 40 in 12 games. Howard Smith continued his fine form with a hat trick, Tuck 2, Clarke and Hodgson completed the scoring.
